OUTLINES.

The sensation in the New York insurance investigation yesterday was that President McCurdy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company receives a salary of $150,000 a year and that other officials are paid from $50,000 down to $10,00; it was also shown that numerous members of the families and connections of the officials are on the pay roll for big money——Dr. Oliver B. Hart, of Chicago, is in prison charged with maltreating and murdering a ten year old girl, subsequently attempting but failing to commit suicide——The Republican State convention of Massachusetts yesterday nominated a State ticket, and with only one voice against it favored revision of the tariff; Gen. Draper, the loom manufacturer, opposed it and Senator Lodge defended the movement for tariff reduction——President Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, urges farmers to hold their crop two weeks longer for 11 cents——Fourteen men were killed in a cave of a quarry near Troy, N. Y., yesterday——In the trial of the revenue fraud cases at Greensboro yesterday, the government introduced evidence in the case against G. W. Samuels to show that reports of the destruction of illicit whiskey stills were false——At New Orleans yesterday there were 25 new cases of fever and 4 deaths; at Pensacola there were 16 new cases and 2 deaths; the usual bad reports come from the Mississippi towns where the fever seems to be beyond control——New York markets: Money on call strong at 2 3-4 to 7 1-2 per cent., lowest 2 3-4, ruling rate 7, closing and offered at 3; spot cotton quiet at 10.20; flour dull but steady; wheat firm, No. 2 red, 88 3-8; corn firm, No. 2, 59; oats steady, mixed, 32 to 33; turpentine steady at 69 1-2 to 70; rosin steady.

FRANKENFIELD.

Politics make strange bedfellows but they get chummy and lie together in a common cause.

It makes very little difference to the late Secretary Hay whether Loomis or Bowen was the snake in the grass.

Somebody in New York is circulating $10 bills of the Buffalo series. He may also belong to the crowd that couldn't trust Judge Parker.

Next Thursday week, October 19th, is the date for President Roosevelt's advent into North Carolina. It is quite appropriate that he should be greeted by the Tar Heels at their capital.

The strike of the Charlotte printers enforced idleness upon Poet John Charles McNeill, of the Observer staff, but conditions have so improved that the "Weeds of Idleness" have sprung up again.

Says the Norfolk Landmark: "There is a large and luscious hush where the Government Printing Office used to be." Well we should smile. Mighty hard to hear smothered sounds from under the lid of the "hell box."

The New Jersey surgeons have agreed to reduced to $5 the fee for amputating fingers. The G. O. P. got its fingers burnt by taking trust money for the campaign and no doubt it has fingers that might get cut off at the reduced price.

Clerk Leonard holds to it that he did the National City Bank of New York out of those $359,000 of securities just to show how easily it could be done. As he is only 24 years old they are talking of sending him to a "reform school" till he learns better than to think a youth could get off it like the frenzied financiers.

FISHBLATE VERDICT

Judgment For Plaintiff in Accident Policy Suit in Superior Court Yesterday

FOR FULL AMOUNT OF $1,700

Appeal Will No Doubt Be Taken to Supreme Court—Monk Case Comes on For Hearing This Morning —Other Notes.

After deliberating upon the issues less than twenty minutes yesterday, the jury in the Superior Court, which had in hearing the case of S. H. Fishblate and wife against the Fidelity and Casualty Company, of New York, returned a verdict for the full amount of $1,700 asked for in the complaint. The jury took the case a few minutes before 5 o'clock and announced its readiness with a verdict in a remarkably short time, the issues and answers being returned as follows:

"Was the plaintiff's eye lost as the result directly and independently of all other causes from bodily injuries sustained through external, violent and accidental means? Answer, Yes.

"Did the plaintiff warrant in the contract of insurance that he was in a sound condition mentally and physically? Answer, Yes.

"If so was said warranty false? Answer, No.

"If so was it knowingly false? (No answer necessary).

"Did the defendant have knowledge of the mental and physical condition of the plaintiff at the time the policy was issued? Answer, Yes"—

It is understood that the jury was not five minutes in reaching an agreement on the first issue and that the others were easy after that one had been settled. All the morning session of the court was consumed in argument to the jury, Iredell Meares, Esq., speaking for two hours and a half for the defence and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy half an hour before the dinner recess and an hour in the afternoon in behalf of the plaintiff. Both speeches were regarded as very able indeed. Judge Allen's charge to the jury consumed more than an hour and was regarded by both sides as a fair and able presentation of the law and facts bearing upon the case. The evidence in the suit and His Honor's charge to the jury were taken in shorthand by Miss Stella Shrier, official court stenographer.

No one expected the jury to reach a verdict so soon and Judge Allen left instructions that he would come again to the court room at 7 o'clock in the evening and receive any verdict or give any additional instructions that might be wanted at that time. The attorneys had dispersed but were at length gathered, after some delay, and at 6:30 o'clock the verdict was returned.

Counsel for the insurance company will to-day make motions for a new trial and for the setting aside of the verdict. The case will go to the Supreme Court in any event.

Court met yesterday morning as usual at 10 o'clock. The sheriff returned the following talesmen as summoned for to-day: E. P. Willard, C. L. Fortune, B. M. Fennell, Jno. H. Williams, W. P. Oldham, C. L. Dickinson, R. B. Moore, E. Keathley. Not found: Samuel L. Smith, Jno. W. Crandall, N. E. Gallagher, J. H. Conley and J. P. Walton. Excused by the court: E. P. Willard.

During the day the following orders were entered on the docket: Murchison National Bank vs. P. J. Jeffry, order of removal to Harnett county; motion of J. C. Clifford, Esq.; R. M. Pearsall appointed receiver. Murchison National Bank vs. Dunn Oil Mills Co., and J. D. Barnes, time to file pleadings, copy of complaint to be mailed defendants' attorneys; 30 days thereafter to answer.

Just before court adjourned the celebrated case of Monk against the City of Wilmington was called so it would not lose its place on the calendar under the rule of the bar that all suits not reached on the day they are set for trial go over until next term. The case involves the title to the city rock quarry and royalty upon a large amount of street paving material taken therefrom. The matter has been to the Supreme Court a time or two, coming back now for a new trial. An imposing array of counsel appear on each side of the controversy and the trial without a doubt will continue into the second week. Appearing for the estate of the plaintiff, who died since the litigation was instituted, are Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, Messrs, Empie & Empie and Bellamy & Bellamy. For the defendant city are ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, Wm. J. Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esqs. Being of the firm of Bellamy & Bellamy, of counsel for the plaintiff, the present city attorney, Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., upon his election to office since the suit was instituted asked and was given leave by the Board of Aldermen to have no connection with the case whatever.

It is understood that Messrs. Rountree & Carr will represent the interests of Mrs. W. A. Wright in the Monk suit.

Costumes of the Ku Klux Klan.

When "The Clansman" is presented in this city at matinee and night Tuesday at the Academy, the peculiar costumes of the Ku Klux Klan will be shown on the stage for the first time. This costume consist of a white mask for the face, with orifices for the eyes and nose; a tall fantastic card-board hat, so constructed as to apparently increase the wearer's heighth; a gown, or robe of sufficient length to cover the entire person and a cover which completely covered the rider's horse, and, by the way, several horses are used in this play. Each member also carried a whistle so that they could communicate with one another by means of a secret code of signals.

BOND WANTED FOR SHOCKLEY

Motion For Habeas Corpus Lodged in Superior Court Yesterday—Heard Upon Petition Next Friday.

In the Superior Court yesterday a motion was lodged by defendant's counsel for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of M. W. Shockley, who is confined in jail, charged with the killing of Frank Talbert in front of defendant's saloon on South Front street a few months ago, the circumstances of which are familiar to readers of this paper. The motion was by Herbert McClammy, Esq., who said he would file the formal petition for the writ either on the following day or on Monday. He made the motion in advance so that the proper notice could be given Solicitor Duffy to be present and represent the State at the hearing.

Judge Allen, presiding over the court, ordered the motion entered upon the docket and the clerk was instructed to issue notice to the solicitor both at his home and at Newbern, so that the prosecuting attorney may be present or represented at the hearing upon the petition, which was set for next Friday, October 13th. Messrs. McClammy and Bellamy & Bellamy appear for the prisoner. As yet no one has been engaged by the prosecution to assist the solicitor.

Counsel for Mr. Shockley yesterday afternoon courteously declined to discuss the grounds upon which the petition for habeas corpus will be based, further than that the offence with which he is charged is a bailable one and the next regular term of court at which it will be possible to give the defendant a trial is more than three months distant and the prisoner must lie in jail until that time.

One of counsel for Mr. Shockley stated last night that when Solicitor Duffy was here at the criminal term of court last week, he agreed to consent to a bond of $10,000 for the prisoner but that amount was regarded as excessive. It is hoped by the writ of habeas corpus to establish that a bond of say $5,000 will be sufficient to require the defendant's attendance for trial and that more than that amount would be burdensome.

INJURED IN RUNAWAY.

Three Wilmington Ladies Had Frightful Experience at Castle Haynes.

A frightful runaway occurred about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Castle Haynes. A horse attached to a vehicle in which Mrs. A. M. Wilson and her two daughters, Mrs. Nettie Robbins and Mrs. Ellis Fulcher, were returning from a drive in the country, became frightened at an ox and cart in the road and dashed off beyond the control of one of the ladies who was driving. The vehicle was overturned and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. Robbins was caught under the buggy and the two other ladies were thrown to one side. Mrs. Wilson was injured in the chest; Mrs. Fulcher was bruised under the left eye and suffered a dislocation or partial fracture of the elbow, and Mrs. Robbins was slightly injured and sustained a severe nervous shock.

The horse ran with the overturned buggy some distance and completely demolished it, later breaking out of the harness and running toward the city leaving the wreck strewn along the highway for some distance.

The ladies were brought to the city and were attended by physicians at their homes at 402 South Fifth street and at 312 Nun street, the latter being the residence of Mrs. Fulcher.

"THE INDEPENDENT" IS OUT.

Wilmington's Latest Candidate For Journalistic Honors Is in Field.

"The Independent," Wilmington's new evening paper by The Independent Company made its initial appearance on the streets yesterday afternoon. It presents an attractive typographical appearance and the first number is well filled with general and local news and vigorous editorial comment. The paper was delivered to city subscribers before nightfall and made a very favorable impression upon its already large and growing constituency. Previous announcement of the business and editorial management has been made.

Negro Amuck With Gun.

Frank Smith, a negro employed by Mr. T. A. Watson, near the County Home, terrorized the neighborhood late Thursday night by stealing a gun from Mr. Ben Turlington at the smallpox hospital and using it in a threatening manner upon several persons in the neighborhood. Smith was very drunk and disorderly and Mr. F. A. Montgomery, keeper of the County Home, and other white residents were called upon to subdue the negro. He was arrested and confined at the workhouse until Constable Savage went out yesterday and brought him to jail on two warrants sworn out by Mr. Turlington, charging larceny of the gun and an assault with a deadly weapon. Smith will be given trial before Justice Furlong at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Bishop Strange's Visitations.

Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop of the East Carolina Diocese, expects to spend next week in Greenville, N. C., for a series of services and sermons at the Episcopal church there. Rev. W. E. Cox, the rector of the parish, was recently ordained to the priesthood oy Bishop Strange. The Bishop left yesterday morning for Greenville and before returning will spend six or eight weeks on an official visitation to a number of parishes in the diocese.

BAZAAR IS HISTORY

Delightful Affair By Wilmington Light Infantry Auspiciously Closed Last Night

NET PROCEEDS NEARLY $500

Miss Margaret Ashe Chosen Queen and Honor Bestowed Upon Her as Such—Valuable Prizes Captured By Venturesome.

The Wilmington Light Infantry Bazaar closed last night just as it opened —in a blaze of glory. The crowds were quite as large as upon the occasion of the opening and the weather was clear, fresh and bracing; not too cold for the strenuous life of the midway nor too chilly for those who eschewed more active participation and came with wraps to look upon the merry whirl of carnival gaities. It was 12 o'clock before the grounds were entirely clear after one of the most pleasant and certainly the most profitable of the three nights of the show.

The feature of the bazaar finale was the close of the voting contest and the crowning of the queen of the fair. The distinguished honor was won by the friends and admirers of Miss Margaret Ashe, who received 20,490 votes while the close competitors were friends of Miss Helen Kenly, 17,100; Miss Lottie Diffie, 16,550; Miss Lottie Pleasants, 16,450; Miss Olivia Horne, 12,200 and Miss Leta Larkins, 11,800. The contest was conducted upon a very dignified plane and following the announcement of the vote the interesting "crowning" event took place in the assembly room of the armory where Capt. Wm. F. Robertson in an exceedingly happy little address presented to Miss Ashe a very handsome signet ring, engraved upon the signet being "W. L. I. Queen," and upon the inside the year "1905." It was a most interesting little affair and one upon which Miss Ashe was happily congratulated by her many friends.

Following the exercises at all the several booths and midway attractions, where the gaities were kept up until a late hour, a "council of war," so to speak, was held by the bazaar managers in the officers' room of the armory. It was there ascertained that the net receipts of the bazaar were between $450 and $500, more than $300 of the gross amount having been taken in last night.

An interesting feature of the closing events of the bazaar was the sale of the 550-lb bale of cotton donated to the company by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. It brought 24 1-2 cents per pound or a sum total of $121.90. The lucky bidders for the prize were Messrs. H. Overstreet and P. W. Davis, who captured the neat bundle of the fleecy staple on No. 66, pooling their bid and receiving it for that amount.

In the shooting gallery contest the pair of $3.50 W. L. Douglas shoes offered by the Mercer & Evans Company to the person making the best score out of 16 shots, will probably fall to Messrs. W. VanHardin and C. A. Lord, who tied in a score of three "bull's eyes" out of five. Upon the proper certificate from the bazaar management the winner may call at the store of the company and be fitted.

Some other valuable prizes were also captured at the wind-up of affairs but the list is too lengthy for enumeration here.

A nice lot of chocolate and pound cakes left over from the bazaar may be purchased very reasonably by householders, who will apply at the armory to-day at noon. Aside from assisting a most worthy object, the purchasers will receive full value and more for what they buy.

A feature of the midway last night was a serenade from the Great Eastern Band, which came up from its practice room at the City Hall and gave the midway a lively accompaniment for its merriment. The visit was appreciated by the company and the public, many of whom heard the organization for the first time.

INVESTIGATION PENDING.

Typewritten Report In Convict Inquiry Ready Monday—Other Witnesses.

The typewritten report of the evidence taken in the convict inquiry will hardly be ready for review by the County Commissioners before Monday. However, there are several other witnesses yet to testify and the Board expects to meet again this afternoon for the purpose of hearing them. Since he testified before the Board Thursday afternoon Mr. Preston Cumming, instigator of the original inquiry, has written a letter to Commissioner Robertson giving in writing the names of witnesses whom he claims will testify to the facts as set forth in his complaint to the State Board of Charities. With the exception of ex-Guards Ormsby and Riverbark, six or eight convicts are offered by Mr. Cumming, the names of all of whom have previously figured in the investigation. It is the purpose of the Commissioners to examine each of these under oath and the hearing, as above stated, will take place this afternoon unless something unforeseen develops to postpone the further inquiry.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The weekly statement of the receipts of cotton and naval stores was posted yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce. Naval stores show a slight falling off in receipts in all items except crude from the same week last year. The receipts of cotton the past week were 19,540 bales against 20,7,441 bales same week last season; since September 1st., 87,288 against 76,908 up to a corresponding date last season. There are now seven large tramp steamers in port for cotton. The Rosewood, however, will clear this morning.

ACADEMY MONDAY NIGHT.

Effie Ellsler in Brilliant Revival of Favorite "Hazel Kirke."

"Hazel Kirke," the miller's daughter, will go through the trials and triumphs that make her Lady Travers upon the stage of the Academy Monday night when Steele Mackaye's remarkable play of that name is presented by a strong company, the star of which is Effie Ellsler, the actress who created the heroine's role and made it famous. Several thousand times since this drama first was produced at the Madison Square Theatre, New York, overflowing audiences have breathlessly followed the fortunes of the Lancashire lass from Blackburn mill to Fairy Grove Villa. It has been seen by more people and has spread a more wholesome influence than any other play of the generation. The number of fathers, mothers and daughters who have been strengthened in their family relation by this intensely dramatic picture of the misunderstanding between Dunstan Kirke and his high minded daughter, hardly can be calculated. "Hazel Kirke" never was seen under more favorable conditions than this year. Miss Ellsler, now in her prime as a woman and an actress, never lent her role more charm, freshness, exuberance and authority than she is doing now, and the production provided by Manager Jules Murry, it is said, excels in scenic an sartorial interest any previous revival. This is positively Miss Ellsler's final tour in "Hazel Kirke." Seats on sale at Plummer's.

THE ACME TEA CHEST CO.

Huge Derrick and Steam Saw Being Installed Across River.

Capt. Will L. Miller, of the Acme Tea Chest Co., is having constructed on the company's log yards across the river a large steam derrick and steam drawn cross-cut saw to facilitate the handling of shipments at the plant here. The derrick has a 75-foot mast and a 55-foot boom, being one of the largest and most powerful appliances of their kind in this section.

Capt. Miller is now receiving an accumulation of logs on the yards and will have the steamer Armenia, Capt. Scearf, here for a cargo about Nov. 27th. In the meantime Capt. Miller is making a shipment of 20 car loads of veneering timber by rail to Newport News, whence it is exported to the factory of the company at Glasgow, Scotland.

Worthy Citizen Is Dead.

Mr. George T. Pearman, a well known resident of this city and a Confederate pensioner of the State, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at his home on Wooster street. Mr. Pearman had been blind for a number of years, but had borne his affliction with meekness and great fortitude. The funeral will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the Second Advent Church, of which he had long been a consecrated member and an officer.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Friday Morning, October 6.

THE STATE OF SEQUOYAH.

The Statehood question will again come before Congress this session, and New Mexico, Arizonia, Oklahoma and Indian Territory will be knocking at the door for admittance as States in some shape or other. The Indian Territory people are specially anxious to become a State, and probably it should be admitted, for it contains a larger population that some of the other States. An active movement is now being made in Oklahoma for statehood, and concerning it the New York Times facetiously remarks:

"An interesting campaign is in progress in the Indian Territory. The five civilized tribes of Indians, comprising about 60,000 individuals, acting independently of the nearly 600,000 other inhabitants of the Territory, appointed delegates who met in convention at Muskogee and rafted a constitution which provides among other things for prohibition and Statehood without Oklahoma, under the name of Sequoyah. At the election, which will be held in November, for the adoption of this constitution, all the citizens of the Territory have been invited to vote, regardless of race or color. The arrangements for taking and counting the ballot are practically within the hands of the Indians and are as crude as the machinery of the old style mob primaries. In these circumstances it would not be surprising if the election returns in November should show a large majority in favor of the adoption of the constitution. The election will be open to suspicion, however, and the results will not generally be looked upon as expressing the prevailing sentiment in the Territory either upon prohibition, the Statehood question, of upon any other disputable provision of the Constitution."

If the Red Men have gotten this idea of carrying elections they have learned it from some of the white men's States. Guess they have specially paterned after the way things are done in Pennsylvania. The Indians, however, should keep it in mind that the Republican party, while anxious for every black man in the South to vote, has denied self-government to the Filipinos because they are not ready for citizenship.

LET US BE FAIR AND CONSERVATIVE.

The Winston Republican, speaking of the warm reception in store for President Roosevelt down South, remarks:

"The South is given to too much sensationalism, and too much inclined to either villify or laud to the skies. Let's be conservative."

In the same column the Republican points a shaft at Judge Parker by making a point that President McCall, of the New York Life Insurance Company said his "life was made weary by the Democratic candidates chasing" him for money in Parker's campaign."

This notwithstanding that Judge Parker denied the statement and proved that he did no such thing, and that President McCall subsequently acknowledge that Judge Parker did not personally approach him for a subscription. He also could not say that any of Parker's friends came to him for campaign money.

While we are "conservative," let us also be fair. We can say this: that if Judge Parker and his party had sought campaign subscriptions from corporations and trusts, they would be equally subject to censure as the Republicans who not only solicited them, but got the money and used it.

The Republican, which we esteem as the most conservative and the best Republican paper in North Carolina, owes it to Judge Parker to set him right.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S BOOKS.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday says:

"A young man of the city, who is a great admirer of President Theodore Roosevelt and his literary efforts, has presented to the Charlotte Carnegie Library a full set of the works of Mr. Roosevelt, compromising 14 volumes. The young man, on account of his extreme modesty, refused to let the librarian give his name. The books presented are: 'Winning the West,' 'Naval War of 1812,' 'A Strenuous Life,' 'Presidential Messages and Papers,' 'Hunting the Grizzly,' 'The Wilderness Hunter,' 'American Ideals,' and 'Hunting Trips of a Ranchman.' President Roosevelt's books are better appreciated by young men than by any other class of readers and there promises to be a lively demand for the volumes."

We believe one or two more of the President's books are to appear later, and no doubt his magazine articles will come out in book form some day, but the above list shows that the President has been a busy writer at times.

The President's speeches, as a matter of course must be published some day, and they will make a big book, for he has delivered more addresses than any public man in America.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL JUNKETS.

The Springfield, Mass., Republican says:

"It is reported from Washington that Congress at the coming session will be asked to consider a bill appropriating money to buy a private car for the use of the President, and pay for such transportation as he wants. Better this, certainly, than the use of the railroads gratuitously, but will the appropriated money also be available for campaigning swings around the circle?"

We don't know but what a string of automobiles are provided for the President, and as going down in a sub-marine boat is no longer a novelty, Congress might look forward to the day that an air ship ought to be one of the adjunets to the traveling outfit for our President's diversion. Of course, air ships are bound to come some day.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—"Nervous prostration" is another popular name that covers a multitude of sins.—Macon Telegraph.

—The banana skin can give the worm cards and spades at turning when it is trodden upon.—Salisbury Globe.

—The indications are that "Old Nick" will be to pay in the Federal Court, at Greensboro, to-day.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—It is said that the railroads are joining in the move to crush the trusts. It is possible that the roads have not heard that the government spent $25,000 to put the trusts out?—Salisbury Globe.

—In an unguarded moment The Citizen recently remarked that the mosquito did not ply his trade in Asheville. After one night of fierce combat with the bloodthirsty assassin of sleep we have changed our mind.—Asheville Citizen.

—An illicit distiller of liquor in North Carolina was fined $23,000 by the Federal Court. If the Beef Trust had been whacked in proportion, it would have been fined about $5,000,000. The distiller made the mistake of not having himself incorporated before he began to distill.—Norfolk Landmark.

—A citizen of Greensboro complained to the authorities the other day that the city water had so much alum in it his wife complained. A wag remarked to him that he hoped he would not sue the town for alum-money (allmony). Not a trace of alum is shown in the analysis made every month.—Greensboro Record.

—That the mills have come to the cotton and come to stay requires the proof of no tedious array of statistics, but is convincingly shown in the singel eloquent fact that in the last three years 483 cotton mills have been erected, and of this number 405 have been constructed south of Mason and Dixon's line.—Macon Telegraph.

—Governor Glenn has stated his position on the liquor question quite emphatically and courageously. He is an out-and-out prohibitionist and does not believe in the dispensary idea at all. He believes the question should be submitted to the entire State without any legislative tweedle-dee and tweedle-um about it. No one can doubt the Governor's attitude now and he is to be admired for his frank expression.—Winston-Salem Journal.

—A protest comes from some papers of the State against the characterization of Judge Shaw as a judge who is "as cruel as the grave." With no intention whatever of taking a hand in the controversy, if such it may be called, we feel inclined to say that some of the people of Charlotte could never be brought to put Judge Shaw in the class of those judges who temper justice with mercy. To our mind he is rather inclined to look into the statutes to see where the limit is and then go it. He may not be cruel, but he is grim.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—"They are evidently man and wife." "No; quite the contrary." "What?" "They are woman and husband."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—"How do you feel in your new Fall gown?" she was asked. "To tell the truth," Bettina confessed. "I feel as if I were in a padded cell!"—Washington Star.

—"I suppose he clasped you in his arms when the canoe upset?" "No; quite the opposite." "Quite the opposite?" "Yes; the canoe upset when he clasped me in his arms."—Houston Post.

—Warden—Now, we try to give our prisoners work of the kind they are accustomed to. Prisoner—That suits me. I was a traveling salesman.—Cleveland Leader.

—"Queer world, isn't it?" "Why so?" "When English fishermen are shot at it becomes a matter of international concern; when American fishermen are shot at everybody laughs."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—It was at the railway station and she was trying to buy half tickets for two children. "How old are they?" asked the ticket seller. "Only 11," "Both of them?" "They're twins." "Ah!" exclaimed the man. He eyed them a moment and then remarked: "Pretty children. Where were they born?" "This one in New York," answered the proud mother, "and the other one in London."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, October 6.—The cotton market was active and excited, ruling very weak under heavy liquidation and bear pressure inspired by increased crop estimates and fears of an increased selling movement among spot holders. The close was 3 to 5 points up from the lowest but barely steady at a net decline of 25 to 30 points. Sales were estimated at 650,000 bales. The opening was weak at a decline of 9 to 12 points in response to lower cables, good weather and reports that a prominent Southwestern authority prominently identified with the successful holding movement of last Winter had estimated the present crop at 25 to 33 per cent. over recent figures and was advising his friends to sell their supplies as rapidly as possible. At first there was some demand higher on liquidation and with no ign of bull support the market worked off until in the early afternoon it showed a net loss of about 29 to 33 points. There was some rally in the late trading as the shorts took profits, but offerings continued heavy and the market showed little improvement. Southern spot markets were gradually unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts at the ports today were 49,692 bales against 49,776 last week and 59,733 last year. For the week, estimated 350,000 bales, against 293,523 last week and 402,569 last year. Coal -- Wood -- Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price, they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on them get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Mooresville, Mecklenburg county, is to have a new bank, $20,000 of the capital having been subscribed and a charter applied for Another cotton mill is also being agitated.

—Lumber Bridge News: "The Presbyterians of Red Springs are expecting Rev. J. C. McCall, of Cleburne, Texas, to assume the pastorate of their church 1st of December."

—Shelby Aurora: Mr. Manuel Luts and son, of Lincoln county, passed through upper Cleveland Tuesday. Owing to their size only one could occupy a buggy at a time. The father weighed 340 pounds and the son 2ou. They are both enjoying best of health and are jolly good fellows.

—Raleigh News and Observer: "Mr. Frank Gough, the excursion agent of the Seaboard, was in the city yesterday, and arranged with Mr. Chas. H. Gattis, the traveling passenger agent, for the running of several special trains into this city on October 19th to hear President Roosevelt. Trains will be run from Charlotte, Lumberton, Louisburg and other points."

—Lumber Bridge News: "The sale of the Townsend Hotel in Red Springs fell through as some one expressed it. Ben Townsend runs it and his boarders say they are glad. They are delighted with the service. The business of the hotel has increased greatly of late. It is good property, an imposing building, on an ideal site, surrounded by lovely grounds and in a fine town for a large patronage."

pso section of the county the farmers were struck by a heavy hail storm last spring and from the consequence they had to replant cotton in that territory. We learn that the late crop of cotton is far better than any of the first crop. There is about four weeks difference in time and old farmers say that it is a very rare occurrence for a crop planted that late to make a good turn out."

—Gastonia correspondence, Charlotte Observer: Gaston county be...eves in expansion; her farm products have always found a good market, her manufactories are known the world over. The leading international merchants are eager to handle Gaston cotton goods, which are especially known for their quality, both in occidental and oriental markets, while from far off Abbessinia, in Eastern Africa, comes the call for cotton goods bearing the mark. "Made in Gaston."

—Charlotte Observer: The old Tredenick mine, near Sardis, is being opened and will be worked. It has been about fifty years since Mr. Nicholas Tredenick quit operating the mine. Since that time something like $8,000 has been collected from the streams below. The old mine is rich in gold. Mr. Nick P. Tredenick owns the property now, and has leased it to Mr. J. B. Hartman. Old man Tredenick and his brother, Richard, came here from Cornwall, England, long before the civil war. The prospects are very bright for profits from the Tredenick mine.

—St. Louis special to Charlotte Observer, Oct. 5th: "Here, mother," said a white-haired man at the Missouri Confederate Veterans' reunion this afternoon in Forest Park; "I want you to meet this man. He captured me at Plymouth, N. C., in '63." The speaker was Captain James Reagle, a veteran, who lives on a farm near the city. The man he introduced to "mother" was John H. Moore, of Blue Springs, one of the Confederate delegates. Many other such meetings occurred during the day, some times between Union men and Confederates, some times between Confederates.

—At Rocky Mount about midnight Saturday the Davis tobacco warehouse, the Farmers' Warehouse and the J. A. Smiley store were consumed by fire entailing a loss of $15,000 to $20,000. The Twin City Echo, of Rocky Mount says: While we regret the fire in the tobacco district, yet we rejoice to see the manly manner in which the Tobacco Board of Trade comes to the front and declares that this market is all right, the three large warehouses being fully able to handle all tobacco that comes to the Rocky Mount market, and that money is plentiful with which to pay the highest prices for every pile.

—Gastonia Gazette: North Carolina now comes to the front as the leading sweet potato state in the Union. When the sweet potato, which is so decidedly superior to the Irish tuber, becomes throughly introduced throughout the country there will be another mint of money for the South in this crop. At present the cotton-growing states are the principal sweet potato states, North Carolina leading with 5,655,391 bushels annually and Georgia coming next with 5.616,317. The total crop for the entire country, including New Jersey's crop of 2,254,344 bushels, amount to 44,000,000 bushels. This allows only about half a bushel a year to each inhabitant! In properly introducing the sweet potato as an article of food, there is the possibility of millions of dollars annually for the South.

—A Pittsburg, Pa., dispatch to The Washington Post of Thursday says: Hugh Hamilton, a manufacturer of Greensboro, was shot and fatally wounded in a crowded restaurant in the heart of the city to-day by Anthony Oleson, a Swede, whom he had never seen before. Oleson is well dressed and appears to be educated. The police believe he is the man who, on October 5, 1903, entered the White House and caused a commotion. The Minneapolis police have been asked for information regarding Oleson. When arrested Oleson carried a lot of anarchist literature, a photo of Eugene Debs, a ticket for Washington, D. C., and $72. Oleson admitted he was on his way to Washington to see the President, Hamilton had come to this city on business. At noon he entered the Hotel Wilson, and sat down at a table. Oleson took a seat opposite and without a word drew a revolver and shot Hamilton. Hamilton ran to the street and into a jewelry store. Oleson followed and fired two more shots into Hamilton's body.

—Kenansville News: "Some weeks ago we noted in the News and Observer, the commission having been assigned Mrs. F. McD. Williams of Faison, N. C., to execute old portraits for the United Daughters of the Confederacy. This work has been done, a striking likeness of General Matt. W. Ransom, for the Confederate Museum, at Richmond, Va., and one of Mr. A. B. Stronach, for the Soldiers' Home, at Raleigh, will be presented for inspection, at the convention this week at Asheville. A happy coincidence, that the daughter of a brave Confederate officer, and she herself a valiant worker in the cause of the Daughters, should be assigned this honor. Mrs. Williams is not only one of our best artists, but she is one of North Carolina's most lovable women. The writer knows well her lovely character and her great success as an artist brings a feeling of true delight to us. Though devoting only a few years to her are work, Mrs. Williams' paintings have made a reputation for her which goes far beyond her own State bounds."

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Backache and many kidney ills follows:

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all

Policeman R. E. Smith, who lives with his family at 213 Boundry street, Goldsboro, N. C., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have been very well pleased with them. They did me so much good that we decided to try them on our little boy who seemed to be suffering from a weakness of the kidneys. He could not hold his urine and we have had to lift him out of bed several times a night or he would pass it in his sleep. Since giving him the pills we have been entirely relieved of this annoyance. My trouble was with my back. I always had a pain right across the small of it, and the secretions were dark colored and heavy with sediment. Since I used the pills my back is much stronger and does not ache at all and the urine has been cleared up to a natural condition. I certainly advise all sufferers from kidney troubles to try them."

Plenty more proof like this from Wilmington people. Call at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and ask what customers report.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxurinant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MONSTROUS CRIME BY YOUNG PHYSICIAN

Maltreated and Murdered Ten Year Old Girl—Monster Attempted But Failed at Suicide.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Dr. Oliver B. Hart, a young physician residing in the suburb of Rogers Park, is in the custody of the police pending further investigation of the death of Irene Klokow, ten years old, which occurred yesterday in the residence of the physician. It is the opinion of the police that a charge of murder will be lodged again Dr. Hart.

The girl died in a bed room of the Hart residence in which she and the physician had been locked for several hours. It is the opinion of the autnorities, based on the facts disclosed at the inquest held today, that the girl was maltreated and then poisoned in an attempt to conceal the crime. After finding that it was impossible for the child to recover the physician swallowed morphine and lay in an unconscious condition all of last night and during the greater part of today. Late this afternoon he partially recovered and was brought to the city and locked up in the east Chicago police station.

The girl was taken about a year ago from the Illinois Industrial Home for Girls by Dr. Hart and his wife, who desired a girl who could serve in a measure as companion for Mrs. Hart, who is but 17 years of age, and at the same time do light work about the house.

Dr. Hart has resided in Chicago but a short time and is the son of a millionaire of St. Louis, who has sent him regularly an allowance of money which has supported him and his wife. Mrs. Hart was before her marriage Vera Kriegesmann, the daughter of an official in the St. Louis postoffice.

They were married when Mrs. Hart was but 16 years of age. She testified today at the coroner's inquest that she left Irene Klokow and her husband alone in the house but declared that she believes him innocent of wrongdoing.

GREENE-GAYNOR CASE.

Last Step Before Prisoners Can Leave Canada.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Montreal, October 6.—The last legal step in the Greene-Gaynor case, so far as the courts of Canada are concerned, was taken today and tomorrow the United States marshals will start with the two prisoners for Savannah, Ga., where they will be placed on trial for alleged embezzlement and conspiracy to defraud the United States government on indictments secured in 1899. The papers authorizing Sheriff Thibeabeau to hand the prisoners over to United States Marshals Doyle and White arrived at the attorney general's office from Quebec today. The marshals were at once summoned to the sheriff's office and the warrants were delivered to them. Extraordinary efforts were made to keep secret when the marshals and the prisoners would start for the United States. Tonight it was stated that the time for departure had been postponed until tomorrow morning.

Notwithstanding this announcement a number of newspaper men prepared to keep an all night watch on the jail entrances.

It was learned from a reliable source that the delay in beginning the journeys South with Gaynor and Greene was to enable the deputies to pass through the State of New York on Sunday to avoid the possibility of the service of papers in proceedings designed to delay the trial of the prisoners at Savannah.

WARM WIRELETS.

Major General T. R. Keerler, in command of the Greenwood Military Company, reached Jackson, Miss., having in custody one of the negroes who shot a white man in Linter City several days ago. The negro was brought there under military escort to prevent lynching.

Thomas L. White on Thursday unearthed a pot containing a large sum of money while removing an old house on the premises of the late Oscar Johnson in King George county, Virginia. It is known that Johnson was wealthy and the disposition of his wealth has never been accounted for. It is believed there is more money hidden on the farm.

The block bounded by the East river, 107th street, Pleasant avenue and 108th street, New York, occupied by the stables and lumber yards of J. Reeber & Sons was swept by fire early this morning. Five firemen were overcome while aiding in the rescue of 250 horses all of which were led out in safety. Before the fire was got under control there was much danger of the flames attacking the big gas tanks of the Consolidated Gas Company on the north side of 10th street. At one point the flames jumped to 107th street and ignited the coal yard of Meyer Brothers. About 200 Italians families were compelled to vacate tenement houses in the vicinity. At 2 o'clock this morning the fire was under control and the loss estimated at $80,000.

FOURTEEN MEN KILLED.

Cave-in of Quarry Carries Death and Destruction.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Fourteen men were killed to-day at a cave-in at a quarry about 2 1-2 miles from Granville, N. Y. Among the dead is F. V. Williams, president of the company. The other were Hungarian laborers. Sixteen men were buried in the cave-in. David Cadwallader and Frazier Queen, the foreman of the quarry, were rescued. Immediately after the first collapse a second one took place which damaged the machinery of the quarry. The rest of those buried were Hungarian laborers. It is thought none of them can be alive. A large force of men from the vicinity and from men from the vicinity and neighboring quarries, was quickly on the scene and began digging for the bodies.

TARIFF REVISION IN BAY STATE

Republican State Convention Almost Unanimously Declared In Favor of It.

SENATOR LODGE DEFENDED IT

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., October 6.—With only one voice raised in opposition to it, the Republicans of Massachusetts in State convention today declared for a revision of the tariff. Contrary to expectations the radical wing of the party, under the leadership of Eugene N. Foss, of Boston, did not offer a substitute for the plank in the platform relating to the tariff, although in a speech to the delegates Mr. Foss declared that the revision of the tariff favored in the State platform was not sufficiently wide in its scope. Mr. Foss, however, said that he and his followers were encouraged at the concessions made to them and that next year they would expect to have the convention accept the proposition in its entirety.

The following ticket was nominated:

For Governor—Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston.

Lieutenant Governor—Eben S. Draper, of Hopedale.

Secretary of State—William M. Olin, of Boston.

Treasurer and Receiver General—Arthur B. Chapin, of Holyoke.

Auditor—Henry E. Turner, of Malden.

Attorney General—Dana Malone, of Greenfield.

One of the surprises came when General William F. Draper, former ambassador to Italy, and a leading member of the Home Market Club, opposed in a vigorous speech the adoption of the tariff revision plank of the platform. General Draper contended that tariff revision would be followed by financial and commercial depression, and, speaking as a manufacturer, he could see no reason why there should be a revision.

Senator Lodge replied to both Mr. Foss and General Draper. He said that the time for tariff revision was the time when the Republican party was in power. He argued that "free raw materials" was but another term for "free trade" and that the admission of free raw materials would sound the death knell of reciprocity as well as of protection.

The platform as adopted demands legislation "to prevent all unjust discrimination in the form of railway rebates."

It declares for "the maintenance of the policy of protection, and approves the position taken by our Senators and Representatives at the last session of Congress in favor of present action and we urge that they should continue to press upon their party associates in Congress from other States the wisdom of a consideration of the tariff for the purpose of revision and readjustment. We further recommend for the consideration of Congress the enactment of a tariff provision which shall protect our exports against discrimination and secure to the Unitec States the treatment accorded to the most favored nations in all foreign markets."

The Department of Commerce and Labor is urged to investigate the question of child labor with the object of its uniform prohibition on a basis not lower than that of the present Massachusetts law. Where the election franchise in any State "has been unconstitutionally limited, representation in Congress and in the electoral college should be proportionately reduced as directed by the Constitution of the United States."

WABASH RAILROAD TROUBLE.

Gould Systems Denounced by Deposed President's Lawyer.

By Wire to The Morning Star

St. Louis, October 6.—Judge Taylor of the St. Louis Circuit Court tonight took under advisement until Monday morning the application filed by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., recently deposed as president of the Wabash Railroad for an injunction to prevent the voting at the Wabash annual election in Toledo, Ohio, next Tuesday of stock held by the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain Railroad companies.

Argument in the case lasted all day and was characterized by sharp exchanges between the lawyers.

Fred. W. Lehmann, of counsel for Ramsey in his argument denounced the Gould railroad systems as being "among the public service corporations which have debauched public morals in America." Continuing Mr. Lehmann said:

"They are the playthings of men who have no interest in them as industrial enterprises. They are in control of a clique of financial speculators."

VIRGINIA VETERANS' REUNION'

President Roosevelt Invited, But Had to Decline.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Senator Thos. S. Martin, of Virginia, headed a delegation representing the civic and commercial bodies of Petersburg, Va., at the White House to-day, their mission being to extend an invitation to President Roosevelt to attend the annual reunion of the Confederate veterans of Virginia, to be held at Petersburg on the 25th, 26th, and 27th instant, under the auspices of the A. P. Hill Camp. The President expressed regret that he would be unable to be present, as at that time he would be on his trip through the South. At the forthcoming reunion, the Virginia battleflags captured during the civil war will be returned to the organization, which originally carried them, the presenting speech being made by Governor Montague.

YELLOW FEVER RECORD STILL UNFAVORABLE

New Orleans Had Twenty-four New Cases Yesterday, and Pensacola Sixteen—Bad In Mississippi.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Orleans, Oct. 6.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. to-day:

New cases to-day, 25; total to date, 3,147.

Deaths. to-day, 4; total to date, 407.

New foci, 8.

Cases under treatment, 200.

Cases discharged, 2,540.

Comparatively little charge characterized the yellow fever situation in New Orleans to-day, both the new cases and deaths striking the daily average for the past week.

A second charge against Dr. Szabary for failing to report a fefever case was made to-day. Mrs. Duffy's home on Stroch avenue is said to have had a case for five days under Dr. Szabary's treatment which had not been reported to the authorities. The Marine Hospital Service is no longer printing the names of the doctor's who report cases, the physicians requesting that the system be discontinued. Public criticism of the removing of cases that turned out to be other than yellow fever is believed to be responsible for the objections of the doctors.

During his visit here the negro population desires a small portion of the President's time. When President McKinley came, staying two days, he paid a visit to one of the colored educational institutions and the colored people wish to have President Roosevelt do the same thing.

To-day the Southern Pacific placed at disposal of Mayor Behrman the fine new steamer Comus to be used by the President in making his trip over the harbor.

Bad Reports from Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 6.—No new points of yellow fever infection have developed in the State during the past twenty-hour hours and no suspicious cases are under observation at noninfected points. The official summary issued from the State Board of Health Officer to-night is as follows:

Vicksburg, 1 new case in city; 3 in county, 1 deaths.

Natchez, 8 new cases, 4 new foci.

Rosetta, 2 new cases, 1 death, total cases to date 28, deaths seven. Under treatment twelve. One patient is Thomas K. Trigg, of Greenville, employed by the Marine Hospital Service.

Handsboro, 2 cases.

Mississippi City, 2 new cases.

Gulfport, 3 new cases.

Hamburg, 4 new cases, 2 deaths, twenty-two patients under treatment.

Port Gibson, 5 new cases, no deaths, nine patients discharged.

Sixteen New Cases in Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 6.—The official fever summary to-day is as follows: New cases today, 16. Total to date, 219. Deaths, 2. Total, 37. Discharged, 79. Under treatment, 103.

To-day's report shows little change in the fever situation.

One of the new cases is the British Vice Consul Frederick Bonar, who is in a very dangerous condition. Fears are entertained for his recovery. One of the deaths was that of a seaman on the Norwegian bark Cosmos.

While the outlook is anything but bright Dr. Porter and the health officials are putting up a strong fight and have not expressed any discouragement over the situation. They are meeting with some opposition on the part of a certain class of citizens who do not seem to be impressed with the danger of the situation.

Fumigation and screening continues despite this opposition.

PETERS HELPING COTTON BEARS

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 6—Colonel E. S. Peters, vice-president of the Southern Cotton Association has issued a letter to farmers advising them to sell their cotton. This letter is expected to arouse criticism in the Southern Cotton Association, as the officers of that organization supported by the Farmers' Union, have advised farmers to hold their cotton for 11 cents. Colonel Peters says he believes that cotton will not go any higher and he predicts a big crop.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—President Harvie Jordan of the Southern Cotton Association to-day issued an open letter to the farmers of the South in which he urges them to hold their cotton for at least two weeks. He states that if the farmers of the South stand together for two weeks and hold their cotton they will win the first against those who are endeavoring to depress the price of the staple. In his letter, President Jordan, refers to the advice of former Vive-President Peters, of Texas to sell cotton. He reminds the farmers of the South of the fact that the resignation of Mr. Peters as vice-president of the Southern Cotton Association was demanded by the executive committee. September 6th, contending that Mr. Peters is no longer vice-president of the association and has no right to sign himself as such.

President Jordan closes his letter to the farmers with a strong appeal to "stand together and resist to the last every attempt to break the present organized effort of the producers to secure fair prices for their staple."

NEW YORK MUNICIPAL CONTEST.

The Republicans Nominate Attorney Hughes.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Oct. 6.—Charles E. Hughes, principal counsel for the committee of the legislature to investigate insurance affairs was to-night unanimously nominated as the candiate for mayor of New York by the republican city convention in Carnegie Hall.

Senator Page read the platform which embraced a denunciation of the Democratic municipal administration, an affirmation of the principal of nonpartisanship in municipal affairs a demand for the passage by the next Legislature of laws for the protection of life insurance policy holders and a more rigid official scrutinizing of life insurance companies, the control of future subways by the municipality, and the establishment of a municipal lighting plant.

Mr. Hughes was asked later if he had any statement of his position to make for publication. "There's nothing just now," he said.

FAMILY AFFAIRS OPENLY EXPOSED

New York Insurance Investigation Shows That Kin Folks Will Stand Together

McCURDY'S SALARY $150,000

Officials of Mutual Life Insurance Company Made Annual Fortunes —Whole Families on Pay Roll For Big Money.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, October 6.—Closing a week, every day of which has produced a sensation that has stirred the country, the special legislative committee investigating the methods of insurance companies adjourned today until Tuesday of next week.

In to-day's testimony the sensational development was when Mr. Hughes demanded the pay roll of the executive officers of the Mutual Life Insurance Company. This was produced and showed the salaries of these officers since 1877. For the year 1904 President McCurdy received $150,000; two vice presidents were paid $50,000 each, a second vice president $17,500, the third vice president $10,000 and the general manager $25,000, who this year will receive $30,000, and the treasurer $50,000.

Robert McCurdy, the general manager, said he never knew the salary of his father until today, when he heard it read in the committee room. He thought, however, that there should be no limit to the salary of such positions because they should be in accordance with accummulations of the company.

When asked if it was any benefit to the policy holder to increase the President's salary, Mr. McCurdy said he thought the trustees should consider that when they increased the President's salary. No increase, however, had ever been considered when he was present at the trustees' meetings.

Earlier in the day when Mr. McCurdy was on the stand Mr. Hughes tried to bring out why C. H. Raymond & Co. and the partners in that firm received larger emoluments from the business than any other agency.

Mr. McCurdy said he did not know what Mr. Thebeaud received from the business and had never talked with him about his personal affairs. He said it was a "large reward for large achievements, and that all businesses of large magnitude were built upon that principle."

It was the impression of the witness that the general agency in Texas received as high compensation as C. H. Raymond & Co. Higher commissions were allowed in New York and Texas than anywhere else, because it cost more to get the business.

"Don't you think you could get Mr. Thebaud's services for $100,000?" Mr. Hughes asked.

"I suppose so if he didn't have a contract."

"Don't think you could get them for $50,000 instead of $147,000 that he received from Raymond & Co. last year?" Mr. Hughes continued.

"I am not so sure of that," witness replied.

Lawyer Beck, the Mutual's counsel, here came forward and said: "If to be related to officers of an insurance company is a crime, President Roosevelt will have to modify his race suicide theory."

"It is not a crime," retorted Senator Armstrong, chairman of the investigating committee. "It is merely ridiculous."

Asked to explain what conditions of competition permitted the firm of Raymond & Co. to make $247,000 last year of which Mr. Thebaud received $147,000, witness said the company did not know what the firm was making out of the business and that like every merchant and business man they were in the business for what they could get out of it.

Mr. Hughes asked: "Did you inquire or learn in any way what C. H. Raymond & Co. had been making?"

"No."

"Ought not a general manager to inquire if a general agent is getting more from the company than it can afford?"

The witness would not discuss the question.

During Mr. McCurdy's testimony, it was brought out that George Raymond, a brother of Charles H. Raymond, was the general agent for New Jersey; that Howard Lewis, the general agent for northern New York, with an office in Albany, was a cousin of either the vice president, Mr. Granniss or Mrs. Granniss; that Dr. E. J. Moss, the medical director of the Mutual Life a sister of the president of the company P Stuyvesant Pilot, an inspector of risks is a cousin of L. Thebaud, son-in-law of President McCurdy and partner of the Raymond firm. G. W. White, a secretary of the company whom Mr. McCurdy was asked about, said he was no relative of any officer of the company but "that Mrs. White was a niece of Mrs. Granniss, wife of Vice President Granniss." He knew none of the salaries of these officers.

It had been expected by the committee that President McCurdy would appear on the stand today, but he had left his office before the committee had notified him. Probably he will be one of the witnesses on Tuesday, when the sessions are resumed.

At one point in the day's testimony much interest was manifested when the expenditures of the company were taken up. An auditor of the Mutual Life, Charles A. Preeler, was on the stand and he was asked as to the method of recording the expenditures. If was gathered that these were passed upon by an expenditure committee of which Robert Oliphant was chairman. Three entries on the books of payments to Mr. Oliphant of $25,000 each were looked into but no information could be gleaned. Mr. Preeler was asked about the campaign contribution to the Republican congressional committee which was disclosed yesterday, but he said none had come under his observation.

The $25,000 to the congressional committee was looked for when the legers were produced but up to adjournment this afternoon this had not been found.

STONE VS. CLYDE S. S. CO.

Interesting Supreme Court Opinion Involving Carrier's Responsibility.

In an action for damages entitled Stone & Co., appellants, vs. Clyde Steamship Company, the following has been rendered as an opinion by the Supreme Court of North Carolina:

"Plaintiff, merchants in Wilmington, had consigned to them through defendant, a common carrier plying ships between Baltimore and Wilmington, various boxes of crackers and biscuit. At the termination of its line in Wilmington the defendant owns a wharf, roofed, but otherwise unenclosed, upon which it discharges freight for its customers; the defendant makes no charge for the use of the wharf or platform if the goods be removed by consignees before Monday following the arrival of its boat on Tuesday of the week previous. It is the custom of the customers of the defendant in Wilmington to remove consignments from the wharf at their earliest convenience, the defendant having no other means of storing the same, which fact is known to shippers and receivers of freight. Plaintiff's consignment of crackers arrived and was put on the wharf on Tuesday, February 9, 1904, and they were notified by defendant; on Wednesday plaintiff had paid freight on goods and removed a part of same; on the night of the 10th a wind and snow storm prevailed and the snow and rain blew under the shed and upon the goods and damaged them to the extent of $29.55, for which plaintiffs brought action. There was judgment for defendant on appeal from a Justice of the Peace and plaintiffs appealed.

Held: On the facts stated the defendant's responsibility as common carrier had terminated and any obligation which remained was that of warehouseman or wharfting, and, under the facts, there was ordinary care and no negligence on the part of the defendant amounting to an actionable wrong. While neither usage nor custom, as a general rule, will sanction or excuse an act which the law condemns as negligent, it is pertinent evidence on the question whether there has been negligence in a given case. Furthermore, the plaintiff had been promptly notified of the arrival of the goods, and so far as appears, had been given ample time and opportunity to remove them.

REVENUE FRAUD TRIALS.

False Reports of Destruction of Moonshine Distilleries.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 6.—A special from Greensboro to The Observer says that the entire session of the Federal court to-day was consumed in the trial of the case of the government against G. W. Samuels, an ex-revenue officers, charged with conspiracy, which was begun yesterday. From the large number of witnesses examined, it is believed, that the trial of this case will consume several days. The first witness examined was Mr. West, of the Treasury Department at Washington, who identified the official reports on file from the defendant. These reports show that raids reported to the revenue department were in reality never made. Marshall Brown, of Wilkes county, who was with Samuels on some of the raids covered in these reports, gave testimony tending to sustain the contention of the prosecution. Several other government witnesses were heard.
